English:

Zenith is a fusion of our loungers and the classic box sofa. A two-in-one model where you get the best of both worlds.

You can hardly call a box sofa modern – yet it has been in fashion for a long time. It became a classic decades ago in Danish furniture design and Danish homes, and not without reason. The classic advantages of a box sofa are its clean-cut look and its unbeatable comfort as a seat. Zenith has inherited both, and in addition it has the depth and the renowned comfort of the heavy lounge sofa.

You will not be swallowed up by the depth of the seat or the cushions, even though Zenith is 20cm deeper than traditional box sofas. High, narrow armrests, a muscular body and a substantial down back provide optimal support for a sitting position, and of course, Zenith comes with our famous down top seats. That is how a cross between a box sofa and a lounge has given rise to a sofa that combines comfort, best possible use of space and long-lasting design. All covers can be taken off and cleaned.

Dansk:

Zenith er en fusion af vores flydere og den klassiske bokssofa. En to-i-ener, hvor du får det bedste fra begge verdener.

Det vil være forkert at sige, at bokssofaen er moderne – for den har været moderne så længe, at den for årtier siden er blevet en klassiker i dansk møbeldesign og danske hjem. Og ikke uden grund. Bokssofaens klassiske fortrin er det stringente udtryk og den uovertrufne siddekomfort. Begge dele har Zenith arvet, og i tilgift har sofaen fået den bastante flyders dybde og berømte komfort.

Her bliver du ikke opslugt af siddedybde og puder, selvom Zenith er 20 cm dybere end de traditionelle bokssofæer. Smalle og høje armlæn, en muskuløs krop og kraftig dunryg understøtter siddestillingen optimalt, og naturligvis har Zenith fået vores berømte duntopsæde. På den måde har fusionen af bokssofa og flyder resulteret i en sofa, der kombinerer komfort, udnyttelse af rummet og langtidsholdbart design. Alt betræk kan tages af og renses.
