Hayon brings the same welcoming spirit of his Catch Chairs to the Catch Bar Stool. Like a friend ready to give you a hug, the arms extend outwards from the curved seat. The result is a bar stool that's a conversation piece, setting the scene for a cosy exchange from the start. The bases are tubes powder coated black and available in two heights, with an enormous array of fabrics and leather types to choose from for the seat itself. It's the utmost in humanity and simplicity with a touch of humour.

"Hayon has a talent for creating inviting designs imbued with a certain energy," notes &tradition CEO Martin Kornbek Hansen. "The Catch Bar Stool is no exception. Whether you're relaxing at home or out at a bar or lounge with others, the Catch Bar Stool is an open invitation to meet, greet and start a conversation."

As Hayon sees it, "Everyone takes design so seriously. My idea behind the Catch collection is to instantly make people feel welcome. That's why the seat is curvy and comfy with outstretched arms. Like a friend waiting for you."
