DLM

Thomas Bentzen's portable side table is aptly named 'Don't Leave Me'. Abbreviated to DLM, it features a convenient handle that allows the metal table to be carried from room to room. Although it has a lightweight and portable structure, the three slanted legs provide great stability. Available in two sizes, the DLM and DLM XL make functional alternatives to traditional coffee tables and can be used in most home or office environments. Both sizes are made in powder coated steel and come in different colour options.
